

TYING THE KNOT?

We know a thing or two about that

IRISH PUB & RESTAURANT

Not many people realize the saying 'tying the knot' comes from an ancient Irish marriage ceremony of handfasting.

The hands of the bride and groom were tied together for a marriage "contract" of one year plus one day that the newlyweds promised to stay together prior to the marriage becoming "legal." If the husband and wife decided at that point they were not for each other they would part. If not, the marriage was then forever.

Rí Rá Irish Pub & Restaurant has been a part of the Portland community for almost 20 years and we have had the privilege of helping many couples 'tie the knot'.

Situated in the historic Old Port, Rí Rá is a beautiful pub and restaurant in a captivating setting. Our venue overlooks the Portland Harbor with floor to ceiling windows offering a 180 degree view of the numerous quaint islands that are dotted across the bay.

Rí Rá Portland is a 'tale of two cities'. Downstairs, as you enter, you are led back in time to a hundred years ago to the peaceful and cozy atmosphere of a traditional Irish pub. Upstairs is a modern, refurbished space, very much in keeping with its New England charm. We like to say that when you are downstairs you are in Dublin, when you are upstairs, you are very much in Portland!

Our venue is a series of extremely flexible interlocking spaces, allowing us to host events of all styles and ambiances.

Our food philosophy

Our carefully crafted menus represent the best in local and fresh ingredients inspired by our Irish roots.

Our menus are designed to bridge the elements of our Irish heritage with the local flavors of Maine and New England. We source as many local products from our neighbors as possible; our chefs curate a pantry full of seasonal ingredients from around the state including lobster and fresh seafood from our pier.

Whether your wedding is simply an hors d'oeuvres and cocktail reception or full course dining, we can tailor a menu to suit your needs. We also host those all-important pre-wedding celebrations including bachelor/ bachelorette celebrations, rehearsal dinners and post-wedding brunches.
